Tasting Notes

Opening with aromas of cherry cola, vanilla, and the freshness of cedarwood. On the palate, the delightful essence of dried orange peel, a blend of flowers, and bright cranberry notes, enriched by a subtle custard hint.

Winemaker's Production Notes

Taming the boisterous tannins with generous new oak reveals the exquisite balance between berry and savory notes with rustic depth for a modern sophistication that had been historically underestimated. Our estate grown Sangiovese was paired with new American oak barrels to integrate fine tannins and with low woody aroma.

Suggested Food Pairing

Roasted cherry tomato pasta with fresh basil and burrata cheese.
