Tasting Notes

The bouquet offers white lily, pomelo, star fruit, and vanilla bean. Apricot and almond flavors are enhanced by a balanced acidity. Brown butter on the mid-palate transforms to crème brûlée on the finish.

Winemaker's Production Notes

Continuing Le Vigne's tradition for the Barrel Select Chardonnay, this wine was fermented and aged in Russian oak barrels. Through malolactic fermentation, the buttery taste and creamy mouthfeel formed while maintaining crisp and refreshing flavors.

Suggested Food Pairing

Chilean sea bass with saffron risotto
